Vici Kid Shoes.

Fairies are "shod with light," but wearers are shod with lightness. The marvel is that kid so fine and soft can be so tough and durable and wet-proof. Robert H. Foerderer alone has the secret of Vici Kid, and of Vici Dressing and Vici Polish.

During the week we have a ladies' maid teaching at the store the right way to dress shoes, and giving valuable hints as to the care of them. Those who learn the lesson we teach get greater satisfaction and double wear from their shoes.

To-night's Meeting.

The union meeting of the churches in the interest of good citizenship, will be held to-night in the United Presbyterian church. The Rev. W. I. Wishart, of Allegheny, will speak.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

In Clerk Robertson's office yesterday, Rev. W. E. Davidson, of the M. E. denomination, was licensed to perform the marriage ceremony, with C. W. Conner as surety.

Marriage licenses were issued, as follows:
W. E. Carroll, aged twenty-eight years, and Fannie Farmer, aged twenty-three, of Wheeling.
W. E. Gray, aged twenty-two, and Ida Belle Wilson, aged eighteen, of Wheeling.

The Chief Reconsiderers.

The Rices, who claim to be evangelists, were not prevented from continuing their meetings at The Hub corner last evening, as was expected. Chief Clemens had contemplated forbidding their continuance, but during the day he was interviewed by a number of people who asserted that the religion expounded by the cowboys-assembling man and wife was their religion, and as these citizens claimed for the strangers the same privileges extended the Salvation Army, the chief, after consulting with Mayor Sweeney, decided to allow the meetings to continue.

A Brilliant Entertainment.

The success of the Bostonia Sextette Club has been phenomenal. The club has appeared in many places in New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and other states to the universal satisfaction of both press and public. The personnel of the club is: Walter E. Loud, violin; S. S. Sutcliffe, violin; W. A. Hochheim, violin; Wulf Friem, cello; Alfred Reinhardt, bass; C. L. Staats, clarinet. Each member of this superb organization is an artist of repute. Miss Helen Wetmore, the soprano, has a beautiful, rich, full voice. She will sing a song with clarinet obligato by Mr. Staats. The concert is given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and will be a leading musical event of the season.

A NOTABLE AFFAIR

"THE CARNIVAL OF AUTHORS"

Under the Auspices of the King's Daughters, of Wheeling, for the Benefit of the Day Nursery, Which Opens This Evening at Arion Hall, and Continues on Friday and Saturday Evenings.

The notable social and charitable event of the week in Wheeling is the Carnival of Authors, under the auspices of the King's Daughters, and for the benefit of the Day Nursery, which is maintained by the organization. It begins this evening at Arion hall, and continues Friday and Saturday evenings. The young women have spared no efforts to make this one of the most attractive and novel affairs ever attempted here, and that their efforts will meet with popular approval goes without saying.

All books and poems represented will have something unique. The costuming will be perfect, and all surrounding appointments in keeping.

In Nansen's "Farthest North," all ices from ice cream to ice water will be for sale.

In "Reveries of a Bachelor," everything of interest in a "den" will be found.

In "Maud Muller," lemonade will be the drink offered.

Chrysanthemums will be for sale, in "Madame Chrysanthemum" both.

In "Cranford," tea will be served at the famous old ladies' tea party.

In "Common Sense in the Household," luncheon of salad, sandwiches, coffee, preserved fruits, jellies, pickles, catsups, plum puddings, cakes, bread, doughnuts and other like things will be sold.

In "Twice the Night Before Christmas," there will be a live Santa Claus, with toys of every description.

In "The Brownies," "sweet cider, ginger bread, Brownie dolls and toys.

In "Old Curiosity Shop," a display of old furnishings and curios, old fashioned candies and sweets, and Mrs. Jarley's wax works.

In "Queen of Curds and Creams," cocoa, chocolate, Dutch cake, etc.

In "The Last of the Mohicans," an Indian war dance will be the feature.

"Under Two Flags" will have an interesting representation.

"Guy Mannerling" will be the Mecca for each night's throng, with Meg Merrilies and other gypsies, telling fortunes, reading palms and faces, selling horoscopes and prying into the futures of all.

METAL MARKETS REVIEWED

By Ohio Valley Manufacturer—Conditions Satisfactory.

The general condition of the iron trade is very satisfactory, says the current issue of the Ohio Valley Manufacturer. The furnace men are assured by present contracts of a good, long, steady trade and profitable run. The buyer, on the other hand, can make up his mind to pay the present price. Thus far his waiting for the demand to ease up has not affected the situation to a material degree. The present demand so nearly using the output gives no evidence of an accumulation of stocks.

Pig Iron.—While no large contracts have been reported this week, yet orders of 100 and 500 ton lots have been numerous and prices firm.

Billets.—There is very little change in demand for steel billets. But the date of delivery does not affect the price, as $40 50 and $42 00 are reported for sales made the same day, but different dates of delivery.

Finished Material.—The demand continues strong and prices firm. There is no prospect of any falling off in the demand for all kinds of finished material. The large contracts made will keep the plants fully employed for months to come.

Old Material.—While the demand for old material continues unabated the price is irregular. Both buyer and seller endeavoring to make the best possible terms.
